

Montclair Police Department (MPD)

Youth Advisory Council (YAC)

Montclair's Police Department Youth Advisory Council encourages those to join their peer led group of teenagers, to give a voice to the youth of the community. This group will meet regularly with Chief Conforti and his Command Staff to discuss issues regarding youth/police relations. Their mission is to ensure that the concerns/issues of the youth are known/acknowledged. This group consists of young men and women ranging from grades 8th-12th.
